

Privacy policy

Dimensys respects the privacy of users of this website. All personal and business data, acquired either manually or automatically during the use of this site, will be treated with great care and in the strictest confidence. We do not supply personal particulars to third parties, unless legally obliged to do so.

Dimensys reserves the right to amend this privacy statement at any time.

Statistics

Records of visitors to our website are maintained for purely statistical purposes. Information such as visitor numbers, visit frequency and page visits are used for internal research, the improvement of our website and further optimization of our services. This information comprises general data only, which cannot be retraced to individual visitors. Our statistical data is accessible solely to authorized persons at Dimensys.

Links

This website contains links to other sites. Dimensys accepts no liability whatsoever for the manner in which said sites protect visitors' privacy, nor the content of the sites.

Provision to third parties

Our carefully selected partners and service providers may process personal information about you on our behalf. This includes our sister companies that are part of Emixa, the parent company to which Dimensys also belongs.

All our processors are obliged to protect your personal data. We conclude agreements with our processors in which we explicitly include this.

Should you wish to pose any queries concerning this disclaimer, please do not hesitate to contact us.
